

XANGO: Leading With Premium, Functional Products

About the products:

A global nutrition company, XANGO, LLC is a recognized leader in health and wellness products. Now expanding into a wider range of botanicals, XANGO's flagship wellness ingredient is the mangosteen fruit.

In fact, XANGO was the first company to market a premium mangosteen beverage, XANGO® Juice, to consumers worldwide. A delicious dietary supplement, XANGO Juice harnesses the nutritional attributes of the whole mangosteen fruit through a proprietary puree formula. It is the only mangosteen beverage that delivers the full nutritional benefits of the whole mangosteen fruit – rind, pulp and seeds.

XANGO has since expanded its roster of premium, functional products to include XANGO® Reserve, Glimpse® Topical Skin Nutrition, Juni by XANGO®, XANGO 3SIXTY5™, Precis™ and Eleviv®.

About the company:

In 2002, privately owned XANGO started with 14 employees in the United States and today operates in 34 countries and territories with approximately 500 employees. XANGO's corporate headquarters are located on a 30-acre campus in Lehi, Utah, supported by 28 global distribution facilities. One million distributors participate in XANGO's global network, which includes operations in the United States, Mexico, Canada, Malaysia, Germany, Australia, Japan and other international markets.

Mission:

XANGO is intent on continuing to drive the market as a worldwide leader in nutrition and wellness-based products. Supported by the success of its direct sales model, XANGO is one of the world's fastest growing companies and has set high goals for its corporate growth and charitable work.

Around the World with XANGO!

XANGO Goodness:

This worldwide cause-related movement mobilizes XANGO's global resources to better the lives of others through philanthropic action. XANGO corporate partners, distributors, employees and consumers participate by giving their time and money to sustainable efforts that serve and support children, families and communities. XANGO partners with respected and effective charities from North America to Australia to Asia to South America and everywhere in-between to support global humanitarian needs. In fall 2009, XANGO launched the XANGO Goodness Foundation, a public charity 501 (c)3 foundation.
