

the juni philosophy

Ready to take responsibility, Juni offers wholesome hair & body products that blend the most powerful phytonutrients of the mangosteen with other family-friendly botanicals for a pure and simple revitalization that doesn't go against nature. Every ounce of Juni is enriched with an exclusive blend of mangosteen actives, saturating your skin, scalp and follicles with phytonutrient goodness. It's a natural clean.

a natural, toxin-free clean

Society may have gotten comfortable with sulfates, silicones and other painless poisons that perk up the outward appearance. But you haven't. You don't want hair that shows a chemical glow... you want hair that shines with good health! You want skin that is clean, fresh and free to breathe. Enjoy a toxin-free clean with Juni.

juni: a blessing for the whole family

The Juni family of products offers healthy family hygiene built on simple, pure and safe ingredients. They're gentle, natural and green. When you purchase Juni products, you know you are paying for purity, protection and peace of mind for your entire family—all the way from baby to grandma. With Juni, you get the best care in its simplest form.

mom approved

Every mother's desire is to keep her loved ones safe. That's what makes choosing Juni so easy. Juni sets the same high standards of care as safety-conscious mothers everywhere. No harsh chemicals, synthetic dyes, sulfates or unwanted substances allowed. Juni is your first step to happy hair and body. The more you use Juni, the healthier your skin and hair become. Feel good about what your family uses every day.
